COULD I FORGET YOU.

By MONROE H. ROSENFELD.

INTRO.
Moderato.

I can - - not tear you from 'my
The stars may fade from yon - der heart, _____ Nor bid remem-brance fade a - way; _____ In sky, _____ The rose may with-er in its bloom; _____ But all my life you are a part, The sun - shine of its clouded love like mine can nev - er die, It bright - er glows in care and day. Each word and glance I treasure still, And gloom. I try to think of bro-ken vows, Of seek for-get-ful-ness in vain, Nor time nor place can change the faith - less words be-yond re - call; And yet with-in my in - most past, Love's old - - endream re- turns a - gain!

heart, I love you still in spite of all!

CHORUS.

Could I for-get you as you have for-got-ten me! I'd still re-gret you tho' your face no more I see, The love I gave to you was faith-ful, now from ev'-ry bond you're free! Oh!

could I but for-get you as you have for-got-ten me!
